

Lily Dorianty Purba
Indonesian Representative for ACWC –Women's Right

Lily Dorianty Purba is a freelance gender consultant who is currently working as a gender advisor/expertise for National NGOs and International Development Agency in Indonesia to provide technical advices on gender equality to Development Program and Project, for different issues. She has been worked for over 25 years on the ground in Indonesia. Her background includes Gender equality, Women and Human rights, Migrant Workers, Community Empowerment and Advocacy.

She was graduated from the Faculty of Social Political Sciences, the University of Indonesia in 1985 and master's degree in Development and Gender at University of East Anglia, in the United Kingdom (1999), that brought her to work as gender and development consultant for different international donor organizations and national NGOs. She has helped many international and national organizations for assessment, monitoring and evaluation of their development projects.

Lily started her career in social movement in Jakarta with Urban Community Mission in 1998 where she worked with labour factory workers for organising, training and advocacy. Between 2003 and 2006 she has been worked in Komnas Perempuan (the National Commission on Violence Against Women) as national commissioner, with responsibility for human rights training with gender perspective and gender based violence. She also worked as manager for Social Gender Integration Fund at PSU-CIDA (Canada International Development Agency), to manage grant and monitor the project results. She continued her involvement on women workers rights in Indonesia, including women migrant workers rights in Asia where brought her moving to Hong Kong, worked as deputy director in a regional NGO, Asian Migrant Center in 2009.

Between 1994 until now, she use to involve in training on women's human rights and violence against women, gender responsive budgeting, strategic planning and workshop as resource person, facilitator or trainer. She helped organization of diffable, church based organization on Oikotree (environmental) movement and marginalized groups in Indonesia (women migrant worker, factory labor, women facing violence).