

Name: Dr. San San Aye

Designation: Myanmar's Representative to the ACWC for Children's Rights

Dr. San San Aye is currently working as a Deputy Director General of the Department of Social Welfare (DSW) under the Ministry of Social Welfare, Relief and Resettlement, Myanmar. Prior to this, she served at the Ministry of Health for 21 years. During a couple of years in DSW, she has dedicated in establishing a Social Protection system in Myanmar and a deep involvement in corner stone policy movements in terms of developing ECCD Policy, Youth Policy, Ageing Policy, Rights of Older Persons Law, reviewing Child Law and drafting the prevention and protection of Violence Against Women Law. She has conducted several health financing researches for the country. She is a chapter author for Health Systems in Transition Series for Myanmar, Asia Pacific Observatory publication in 2014. She is also a visiting lecturer at the University of Public Health and Yangon University in Myanmar. She graduated with the Medical Degree at the Institute of Medicine (1), Yangon in 1990 and M.Sc. (Health Economics) degree from the Chulalongkorn University, Centre for Health Economics in 1997.